

U.S.D. 333DISTRICT NEWSLETTER*QZAB-One Step Closer!

The Kansas State Department of Education has notified Superintendent Bev Mortimer, that USD 333 will receive an allocation of $1,500,000 in the form of Qualified Zone Academy Bonds. School districts are eligible to apply for this program if their rate of students qualifying for free and reduced lunches are at 35% or greater. The school district will partner with local banks on the bonds, who will receive tax credits in lieu of interest on the bonds, as determined by the IRS. The bonds will be repaid over the next ten years, at 0% interest to the school district.

The allocation of the bonds will allow the school district to proceed with the entire heating and air-conditioning project that has been planned for Concordia Jr./Sr. High School, rather than phase the project over the next two to three years. Another major benefit is that this type of program will not increase tax levies for the patrons of USD 333.

Local banks have been invited to attend a meeting on February 15th, at 12:00 noon, in the USD 333 Board office. School representatives, as well as a representative from McLiney & Company, (Investment Bankers) will be present to explain the QZAB program.

POWER PANTHER PALS

Alisha Blackwood

This year Concordia's 4th, 5th and 6th graders received a $1,057.50 grant to participate in a program called Power Panthers Pals. This is an innovative eight-week health education program that will be implemented in their physical education class that encourages students to eat more fruit and vegetables, make their own healthy snacks, and learn to enjoy daily physical activity. Included in this program are student activity books, weekly newsletters that will be sent home to the parents, and cooking and eating healthy snacks at school. Students will be divided into teams at the beginning of the program. Fruits and vegetable consumption and physical activity will be calculated in "Power Points". At the conclusion of the eight weeks, each member of the team with the greatest number of "Power Points" will receive a water bottle. Each student will also receive a membership card, certificate of participation, and a carabiner clip (after meeting their goal 5 of the 8 weeks). Family members are encouraged to participate with their child to earn more points. The purpose of this program is to make students aware of the importance of enjoying healthful foods with particular emphasis on fruit and vegetable consumption. Throughout the program, students will also participate in enjoyable, daily physical activities.

For the past few weeks the 5th and 6th grade classes have been creating wire sculptures in art. Along with creating these 3D works of art the students were also asked to put their wire sculptures into action and create the visual effect of movement. COMMON COLD VS. FEARSOME FLU: How can you tell the difference?

A cold moves in slowly, usually over the course of a couple of days.

A cold doesn't usually confine you to bed-the couch, perhaps.

A cold affects you from primarily the neck up, causing sneezing, sinus congestion and a runny nose.

A cold typically doesn't cause a high fever.

A cold can linger for as long as seven days but usually not longer than that.

The flu comes on super fast, even overnight. You often don't see it coming.

The flu makes the mere thought of rolling over in bed extremely exhausting.

The flu mostly hits from the neck down. You'll be severely achy and tired, and you'll likely have a cough.

The flu triggers fever (101 or 102 degrees).

The flu knocks you out for up to five days; you'll need another week to feel normal.

5-8 Guidance

Before the winter break, students in grades 5-8 were given a survey to collect information in regard to bullying behavior at school. The main focus of the survey was to determine how much bullying behavior was going on, where it was happening, and what type of bullying was occurring (verbal, nonverbal, physical). Even though many good things were found due to the survey, there's a lot of work to do. Rumors and gossip headed the list of concerns expressed by students. Two "bully hotspots" were noted as well.

Using the information collected in the student survey, something new is going on at CJHS. Sixteen students in the 8th grade have undergone some training to become "peer moderators." These 16 individuals have been put in a position to lead group meetings. Students in both 7th and 8th grade have been grouped together into teams of 10-12 students and meet with a peer moderator twice a month to discuss issues within both school and personal life. Through group discussion and individual leadership, students seek to solve daily issues in a peaceful way while developing relationships with students they may not have known before. All of the group meetings are adult free so students can speak candidly. At this point, all of the peer moderators have reported positive things going on during group meetings.

In addition to kicking off a bully prevention plan at CJHS, students in grades 5-8 have had an opportunity to engage further with Rachel's Challenge by being an active member of the F.O.R. group (Friend's of Rachel). The CMS group is made up of 5th and 6th graders while the group at CJHS is included with the high school group. The F.O.R. group at CMS is putting together new student gift packages and getting together for a poster making party to make posters which relay Rachel's personal challenges. The Jr./Sr. High F.O.R. group is busy deciding what activities they want to undertake, the first of which was a spirit night in support of the girls' and boys' basketball teams. We're hoping more school spirit will catch on across the school/sporting community. All in all, both groups are doing some very positive things and will continue to grow both in size and idea.

Working to meet the challenge,
Kevin Steinert
